Classification: Query

Surnames: Elliot, Elliott,
Cloyce, Squiers, Squires, Reeves, Holly, Aldrich and others.

I have seen Daniel Elliott (born 1662) in trees as the son of Peter Elliot and Hannah Littlefield, this is not correct. The next tree shows Daniel Elliot as the son of Daniel Elliot and Dorcas Pope, this seems more likely but sure would like to find anyone who may have a suggestion, a source to check, or anything that would help to shed some light on this subject.

What we know:

Daniel Elliot born 1662 Mass, married Hannah Cloyce had 7 known children:

Daniel married Sarah Provender

Ebenezer married Margaret Seager

John

James

Nathaniel

Jonathon married Lydia Harwood

Peter

Daniel and family lived in and around Salem Mass, including Danvers, Sutton, Oxford etc. Daniel testified at the Salem Witch trials on behalf of his step mother in law, Sarah Towne Bridges Cloyce (2nd wife of Peter Cloyes). He died sometime around 1728 as that is the last mention of him in any town records, his son Daniel and wife Sarah are still living in Framingham, and can be traced through town histories as well as tax, land and probate records. He died about 1737 but no record of burial still exists. Daniel and Sarah had six known children, one of which was David Elliott, born in Uxbridge, found in Beekman Patent papers, removing to Dutchess County New York once the Indian wars had decreased. Fought in the Rev war. Married Mehitable Aldrich and had 9 known children, one of which was Ensign David Elliott who married Deborah Elliot, a first cousin and daughter of John Elliot and Deborah Aldrich. Our Ensign David was born 1744 in Uxbridge and followed his father to Kingsbury after the raid on the Elliott Farm in Dutchess County by the soldiers. He is listed in Beekman Patent Papers as living with wife Deborah and son Peter. (This is not the same David who married Lucy Campbell and Hannah Adams), Ensign David died in 1793 in Kingsbury, Washington County, NY and is buried in the Kingsbury Cemetery. Deborah Elliott appears to have moved west with her sons David & Peter sometime before 1810, as the sons can be found on the 1810 Cayuga County Census records as well as the History of Cayuga County, Deborah lived with David, her son and his family on the 1830 census for Yates County NY, she is buried in the Segar Cemetery, Steuben County NY, which is listed online at Rootsweb. David & Deborah Elliott known children were Peter, David and William. William married a woman by the name of Keziah and lived and died in Washington County NY (I have copies of his will and probate records) Peter is still up in the air, but it seems he married Phebe Holly and Phebe Reeves and had many children, he is found on the 1850 census in Lake County OHIO with son Isreal. Son, David Elliott married Mary Squiers (Squires) daughter of Heman and Keziah Squires, sometime before 1810 in Cayuga County, their children were John, Alanson (Lanson), Warren, David, Heman (My G-G), Hester Ann, Deborah Ann, Mary "Polly" and Clarissa.
