Daniel Elliott and Sarah Provender

HUSBAND:

Daniel ELLIOTT. (ELIOT-S2). [PC M3-1].

Born on 17 August 1686-1687 at (Salem, Essex-S1)(Framingham, Middlesex-S2,S6), Massachusetts; son of Daniel ELLIOTT and Hannah CLOYCE.

He married Sarah PROVENDER on (3-S1,S2)(12-S6) February 1707-1708 in Framingham, Middlesex County, Massachusetts.

His home lot was on Town Plain, on the east side of the eight-rod wag, H. 139. He was part owner in the mill given to Jonathan Provender, who was a brother of his wife, Sarah Provender. He sold his whole estate in 1716 and removed to Sutton. {S6}.

Daniel Elliot Jr. from Framingham, Massachusetts sold real estate in Sutton, Massachusetts in 1716. {S2}.

Daniel ELLIOTT died in 1737 at New Milford, Connecticut. This is probably not the correct Daniel.

A history of Dutchess County claimed that some of Washington's troops (no doubt very hungry) descended on some of the local farms around Dover/Pawling. One of the farms belonged to one of our Elliot families. The soldiers killed he livestock, chickens, etc. and basically "wasted" the farm. Shortly after this incident two Elliot families -- that of David and his brother John moved their household to Kingsbury, Washington County. {S7}.

WIFE:

Sarah PROVENDER. [PC M3-2].

Born (about 1687)(in 1689-S6)(in 1691-S5), (probably in Massachusetts)(in Framingham, Middlesex County, Massachusetts-S6); daughter of [John PROVENDER \[F2178\]](#).

She is the sister of (John)(Jonathan-S6) PROVENDER of Framingham, Massachusetts. {S2}. She married Daniel ELLIOTT on 3 February 1707-1708 in Framingham, Massachusetts.
