 grad. 1779; travelled in Syria and Palestine and family helped pay expenses; wife said to be a lady he met in West Indies; was away a long time and family had given up hopes of hearing from him. At length he came back, announced that he was Sam Chandler.
 Some thought that he was an imposter. He visited his sister, who was 20 years younger-probably Polly-who married Dave Foster and was living in Andover. She did not recall him very well and was very cool toward him. She sent him to see his mother who had married Daniel Parker and lived in Reading. Later Polly repented and tried to find him but without success. He did not go to see his mother. Another tale is that after leaving college he went to Philadelphia and worked in a bank. Here he married a lady of fashion, and brought her north to visit his family. They seemed of such humble station, Sam and his wife did not stop, except long enough to take a cup of tea.

Sam (6)--) Sam had one child b. in Andover, 1789, however, so he must have had his wife here awhile. In 1801 in a letter written to his mother, from Chesapeake Frigate, Sam alludes to a letter she had addressed to Col. Reed. (This was 10 years after Polly m. David Foster.) Some one, he wrote, told him that his mother had died while he was living in the West Indies. He said that most of his time had been spent in New York and Philadelphia and he had visited all the States and West Indies- doing all sorts of work, but mainly tutoring in colleges. Said he had turned minister, and he recalled parson French's discourses. He was then, he said, bound for the Mediterranean as a chaplain, and would visit Egypt and the Land of Canaan and the Euphrates, and if he got back would come to see her.

Notes-

Al. Poor places Philemon Chandler on the Henry Hayward place, 20 rods south of the road leading from the cemetery. He said that Philemon, Sr., lived on the Hidden place. According to him, Philemon Jr., married the widow of Job Foster who lived on the Capt. Allen homestead in Ballardvale, near Rattlesnake Hill. One of the children of Philemon (5) used to chant the doggerel:- (about 1750)

" Father can plough and hoe,
Mother can card and spin;
Hetty can knit like a witch
And the money comes tumbling in."

Dorcas Ballard Chandler lived alone ^{in the Vale,} after her brother Nathan died, 1861. Her brother Herman P. Chandler built the house where she lived, in 1847 and in 1863, a nephew, George H. Chandler, owned it, though Dorcas had the use of it. Dorcas and Nathan kept boarders in the Stone building for 12 years; left in 1855. Miss Mann's house was once a tavern, and later a Miss Chase kept a private school there.

In 1830, Ralph Holbrook Chandler lived in a house across the street from the Holbrook (1860) residence, now the Richardson stables. He bought the Jacob Foster place- an old Foster homestead. Ralph bought the place from George White , he from Moses Clement, and he from Atwood . Guess it was the small cottage the Chandlers live in now.

In 1835 Ralph Holbrook Chandler built the house on the North Andover line which the Draper's owned later; he then moved to the Town Farm; next, to the Holbrook Chandler place and 4th to the little house.

Joshua and Holbrook Chandler had a tannery on the site of the Draper block. Holbrook built the house that was incorporated by Draper, in the block.

W. Shapleigh of Gloucester City, N.J. sends a copy of a letter written
- of the line
1822, by the Rev. Samuel Chandler, who lived on the Hidden place, - to his,
(Sam's)-wife:

"Beloved:

As I have little property I think it unnecessary to make a will. One thing, however I have to enjoin, which is that you would, without reserve, commit my sermons to the flames.

I never had any ambition to have my writings made public; neither do I have any desire that they should be preserved. When you think of me you will remember my request.
Nov.14,1822.

Sam'l Chandler."

William (3) Chandler (Tom(2), went to Westford, 1697, and before going sold to Wm. Foster, of Boxford, all the 60 acre tract his father gave him. So he lived near the Division Lots of the Lovejoy tribe, just beyond the West Parish cemetery, the first place Wm. Foster squatted on, drawing his house over from Boxford.

He later bought of Ballard and moved to the Foster estate as it is today, near Shawshin River. Capt. John Foster, son of Wm., took the estate of Sherebia Ballard, and Ben Abbott's widow and her sons, took the Wm.(2)
Ballard land next the river.

Dec.22,1721;- Henry Chandler and Zebadia, both of Andover, yeomen, have a meadow on W side Shawshin, -called Brook Meadow, as a brook runs through it- given to them by their fathers-Thomas Chandler and John Chandler,dec.
Henry has the N.side of the brook, to dig and draw stones; Zeb the S.side and he is to pay 1 lb. to Henry. The East side the meadow bds. on a meadow

June 26, 1722 The Will of Sgt. William (3) Chandler: To wife, Sarah Buckminster, while she remains a widow, 20 sh. from each of her 3 sons; son Philemon is to convey her about on horseback.

To Josiah (4), land south of Little Brook, west side South Parish parsonage- joins sd. parsonage and highway leading to Roger's Brook, - also a cloak and 1/3 clothes; Philemon, 1/3; Zacharius, 1/3; wife and Philemon and Josiah, executors.

(Son Josiah left quite a tribe. One was Ben (5) who went to Pembroke about 1739. Josiah (5) had gone to Bradford before his father died, in 1752. Sam (5) was a minister and left Andover for York, Me. Abiah (5) d. in Woburn, 1754; Capt. David (5) lived on the Hill where Moses Abbott lives now.

Sgt. William (3) Chandler's family. Notes.(cont.)

Philemon (4) Chandler was a blacksmith. He bought, in 1718, before his father died, "land before ye parsonage in So. Andover," for 90 lbs. adjoining land of Thomas (3) Chandler- his uncle. The Chandler Book says- Philemon (4) lived on road south from Seminary as it turns to the right, where Hidden place stands, and that his ancestors had lived there before him. He owned 30 acres around the home, a large tract of meadow and woodland by Chandler's Bridge and South of Preston's Plain and a pasture where Stone Academy stood, 1860. This place went to his son, William (5). From him we can trace it- Wm. (6) and Isaac (7).

Zacharius Chandler (4), went back to Roxbury, so he was not in the old place. (How did Philemon (4) and David (4), son of Jonathan, get up on the Hill, if Wm. (3) lived near the parsonage?)

Thomas (3) Chandler (Wm.(2) left a will providing for his wife, but she died in Oct. 1751 and he died later, in November, of the same year. He left to his daughters: Mary Ballard, Phebe Dana, Bridget Wood and Hanna Burroughs, and Elizabeth Dane, 30 lbs. each; 100 lbs. to be divided among 6 g-ch.; to Tom (5), a saddle and pair of boots; to Joseph (5), 30 lbs; to g.sons George, Tom and John, cr. of dau. Hanna Burroughs, a widow, 10 lbs. each. Dec. 1751.

Wm. (4) Chandler staid here, and after his wife, Elizabeth Blanchard died, he married Mary Holt, 1736. He died 1741 and she married Osgood. She had 3 Chandler children, and the 1st wife had 5. Mary had 1/3 as a dower, and got 12 acres in West part of Pine Plain. Son Tom (5), appeared in Billerica as a blacksmith. Wm. (5) was in hot water with his uncle James (4) a good deal, and seems to have been in Rowley, 1753, under guardianship.

Stevens (5) lived in Ashford, Ct. and was sent back to Andover- or came back, and died here in the almshouse.

The Rev. James (4), (Tom (3)) of course had no land here, and was of Rowley. Tom (5), (Jos. (4) died 1745. Joseph (5) got only money and the estate of the father went to the wife of Isaac Blunt.

Joseph (3)-(Wm.(2)- who got the homestead, made a will, Dec. 18, 1733. His wife Mehitabel and eldest son Tom (4) were to have the homestead. (He d. of small pox and the estate was sold.) Joseph (4) John (4), daughters, Mehitabel Crosby, Mary, Phebe, Bridget and Hannah were to be provided for.

Joseph (4) went to Readsboro, Vt., from Andover, about 1765, but he was of Ashford and Groton before that, and of Willington, Ct., in 1756. He died in Ware, Mass. so he sold out, if he lived in Andover long before that.

John (4), died here 1759; one son went to Braintree, Sterling and Princeton, Mass., and another was gardner in Salem.

Old Capt. John (3) gave his homestead to his son, Joseph (4). West side Shawshin River and other land and out divisions, to be laid out. Zeb (4) got land previously; John (4), gave or sold to his son John (5), 1730, the homestead lot of 15 acres, North side of road against John Wilson's house, bds. on Abiel Chandler's-north end- SE end by road; also by will, he got land in Concord. Old John had 15 acres both sides Road and 15 acres on road from North to South Meeting House; 20 acres on Blanchard Pond Brook on Road; 46 acres W side Pond Brook; 20 acres in Merrimac Woods; 8 acres bought in Claypit meadows; Rumford lots; blacksmith shop and tools.

Nathan got the homestead and all finally. He sold part of it in 1787 and moved to Concord, 1794.

The CHANDLER FAMILY

From a diary of a Chandler in York, Me.

- "May 12, 1746, Sam'l Chandler starts for Andover. Got to Ferry at Portsmouth at 6 o'clock; rose at 4 o'clock; started at 9; got to widow Lovetts at 11; when he "oated" his horse; dinner at Amesbury Mills, at 1 o'clock; got to Haverhill, 3 o'clock; stopped at Josiah (5) Chandler's in Bradford until 6 o'clock and then went to "uncle Marble's". (Ingalls side.) He stayed there 1/2 hour and got to Andover at 9 o'clock, and sat up until 12.
- His bones were sore because the horse was hard going.
- May 13.- Got up at 6 and visited uncle Philemon(4) and uncle Thomas(3). Then to Mr. Phillips; to bed at 12.
- May 14;- Got up at 5; set out to go home. Dined at Grandma Ingalls'; Stops to shoot geese and fishes awhile in Bradford; caught a whiting. Seems to stay in Haverhill a time and the next entry is about fishing and evidently in York again.

In Gloucester he visited old Mr. Stevens and wrote a will (1752) for James Stevens, getting 5 lbs. for it, in a cane; mended Capt. Sargent's clock.

June 9, 1752.-Bought a Jersey girl for 5 years, gave 50 lbs.

- Aug.12, 1752:- News came of his father's death(Josia(4), - in the morning (came that evening). He set out next morning. Josia was buried at 5 o'clock on the 13th. All went to the funeral.
- Oct.12, 1752:- New home was raised; treated 70 people to toddy, white bread and cheese.
- Oct.19:- Dinner of Roast Pig for Mr. Chandler' at whose home I stayed on way home from Gloucester; spoke of Exchange with him.'
- April 28, 1753:- Brother Josiah comes to visit and he had a new gun made.
- Feb. 6, 1754:- A letter comes from a brother, saying that mother, Sarah, is sick with fever. He started out at 2 o'clock with Isaac Osgood; got to Haverhill at 9; staid at Pecker's; got home to dinner and found all sick. Mother most "aguish". (So they had malaria then.) He visited at Philemon Chandler's and got the legacy uncle Zach(4) left him- ("Z. d. in Roxbury 1750). Was at Uncle Dane's.
- Feb. 10:- Mother taken with a "lethargy"; sat up with her until 3 o'clock the next 3 nights; she d. on the 13th about 9 3/4 o'clock.
- Feb.15:- The funeral; all the brethren there. Went back to Maine; had to leave off meat; made 30 lbs. of candles; dug a well; wife ill; goes gunning with eldest son, John to 10 lb. Island.
- 1755- Fast on account of War. He wants to go to Crown Point and they vote to have him go as Chaplain.
- Sepr. 29, 1755:- Starts out at 10 o'clock with Col. Ich. Plaisted; dined with him and they start for Andover and got here at sunset. He staid with his mother's folks and Plaisted was with Col. James Frye.

- Oct.1,1755:- Got to Worster- a shire town on a plain by a small stream surrounded with hills. Hilly land to Lystre(?) where he lodged at Sargent's , about 1/2 mile east of Mr. Roberts' Meeting House .
(He surely means Leicester as there was a minister Roberts there and the Meeting House was on a large hill,1755.)
- Oct.17:- Breakfast on chocolate drink and raw pork at Mosey Hill. Got to Ft. Edward at 3 o'clock, in rain. Col. Gilbert of Berkley gave them rusk to fill up with, on way to camp. Caught a trout with his sword and had venison for supper. Dined with Col. Whiting on fish.
- Dec.4:- Horse was stolen; borrowed some money and bought a new one, of Cornelius Miller. Started home next day, Dec.5.
- Dec.16:- Went over to Charlestown ; sent horse home; took boat. Had fever, hard campaign all round.
- 1759:- Children have measles bad and he had to watch alone and was all worn out.-(Ann Pecker was a crank). Wife acted awfully and friends hold a family meeting to see what to do, and he locks her up. Hard day on Thanksgiving. She pinches and pulls hair.
- 1775:- A Universalist came to Gloucester and Rev. Sam worried over him. His daughter Anna and son John also were a trial."
